Compassionate Guidance for Bankruptcy in Macon, GA and Throughout South Atlanta

Skillfully helping clients seek the protections and peace of mind of bankruptcy

In this tough economy, many people are struggling through no fault of their own. Job loss, medical problems, divorce or any number of unforeseen difficulties can lead to unmanageable debt. In Stockbridge and Macon, bankruptcy lawyer Lisa Sampson-Roberts has the knowledge and experience to help you get a fresh financial start through bankruptcy for yourself, your family or your small business.

Is bankruptcy right for you?

Bankruptcy is not right for everyone. The best way to determine your own best option is to work closely with reputable bankruptcy lawyers. In Macon and Stockbridge, GA, Sampson-Roberts & Associates offers outstanding guidance and fast, efficient bankruptcy filing. Your free initial consultation outlines:

Chapter 7 bankruptcy

- Wipes out your unsecured debt, such as credit cards and medical bills
- Protects some personal property from creditors
- Can help you become debt-free in only three to four months

Chapter 13 bankruptcy

- Creates a payment plan to avoid foreclosure or repossession of your house, car or other property
- Allows debt to be paid back over time
- Can help eliminate most of your unsecured debt

With her extensive knowledge of bankruptcy laws, Lisa Sampson-Roberts also helps you understand options like stripping a second mortgage lien from your home. This helps make the property more affordable by reducing the monthly payment and preventing foreclosure.

Comprehensive, confidential legal guidance

Filing for bankruptcy may seem like a last-ditch effort. But it can be a new beginning and the best option for putting debt behind you and moving forward with your life.
